“ Tinny, I am so sorry for my lost. I didn't know you had transition from this world to be with our Heavenly Father. I worked with you for a while in the caring for the elderly. You were so concerned about your husband and all your family, which i admired. ALL those family dinners. You and your cousin Ruby use to prepare together. Oh how I am feeling so much pain, because I didn't know you were gone. I pray for strength to carry on. Most of all your family. Remember we witnesses 8 years of our President Obama begin our first black president, from the beginning. My brother from New York told me you had passed, i miss you and love you.
