“ My Heart and Prayers goes out to the Payne family may God strengthen them through this time of sorrow I have known Billy along time he's just like a brother to me we grew up together on Branch Street together,growing up together was so much fun Billy and I didn't get along but it was fun to nag each other if and when I would visit Billy or see him anywhere the picking at each other would start. Billy you will be truly missed my brother my friend may you rest in peace 🙏
