“ I'm sending my sincerest condolences to you all. Mr. Grant and my husband were very good friends which exposed me to a happy and jovial person that I learned to love. My great granddaughter always liked visiting him to get stuff from his yard sale. After my husband passed I missed those visits to Beauregard. I know that he'll Rest In Peace because his heart was so genuine and he knew Jesus. I can only imagine the reunion that they're having right now.

“ I'm offering my sincere condolences to the Grant family in their time of bereavement. However, always remember that our Father God always knows best for us and our loved ones. Just remember, while we're her on this God given green earth it is only temporary and we are just passing through. When your number comes and his heavenly angels descends we all must follow. May God bless each and every Grant family member and keep them strong and together!!! GOD BLESS!!!

To the Grant Family -My condolences are being written late. As I was just made aware of my friend's passing. I can remember our last call where he mentioned Wanting to purchase property in Alabama to own and operate a fish shack. Boyd was always full of life and loved people. I will truly miss him - He was so genuine.
