“ To the Torbert family, I'm sorry to hear of Cecil's death. I'm holding you close in thought and prayer. May you find comfort in knowing that friends and family are feeling your pain of grief at this time and are there to help in any way possible. Robert, you have my uttermost love, respect, and support as always. You were a wonderful husband to my late niece Rosemary, and the best father to your children. I loved you then and still do now. The Torbert family is such a caring and lovely family that reaches out to so many people who receive their unconditional love. May that same level of compassion and love be returned during this painful time. God Bless you all!

“ Cecil, you will be sorely missed by some many. Your sudden transition has really sadden all of us. I will cherish all the fun times we shared over the years. You always had the gift to make people laugh, even when they didn't feel like it. I thank you for all the goodness you shared. Now I say to you, continue to rest in peace my forever friend.

To the wonderful and kind Torbert Family, I impart my deepest condolences and prayers to you. I know you are heartbroken at this time, but you must continue trust in God and pray to Him for comfort and peace.
