“ Edwina, I only found out today. I am so sorry I did not attend any services for Crenshaw. He had been a dear friend for so many years, working together for the city, when we all occupied the same building, first the City Shop and then the new Environmental Services Building. Please accept my condolences with heartfelt sympathy. Phyllis Gauker

“ Words just don't seem sufficient during times like these to express the loss that you may be feeling, but know that your father, husband, grandfather, friend and a man of many other roles was loved and respected by so many. May God's peace be with you all during the days ahead! With sincere sympathy coming from California!

With love,
