“ *My deepest condolences to the family.
Our families have known each other for many years.
It is heartbreaking to hear of another one of our neighbors has passed on.
Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning.*

“ 🌸 In Loving Memory of a Tiny Powerhouse

She lived every one of her years with fire in her soul and strength in her step. She was tiny but mighty, the kind of woman who could run a household and still have the energy to tell you exactly how she felt no sugarcoating, no apologies.

*She didn't need a big voice to be heard; her presence said it all.
She loved hard, fought harder, and stood up for what she believed in even if it meant standing alone. Her sass could make you laugh, her wisdom could humble you, and her heart could hold a whole family together.*

Rest easy, Grandma. You've earned your crown. We'll keep your legacy alive loud, proud, and just a little bit feisty, just the way you liked it. 💜

Rest in Paradise Ed. The memories from back in the days are so surreal while you kidded around with Uncle JC and Aunt Sarah in Moton and in The Alley. Your soul is resting and is beautifully at peace now. Be encouraged to the family because all is well.
