“ I saw Gladys on the morning of her birthday in the mall. She was smiling, as usual and we talked for a while. She was ordering lunch and waiting for it to be prepared. I left but returned to pay for her food (as my "gift" for her day). She protested but I ignored her and took care of her bill waving her off as she tried to persuade the proprietor to ignore me! We laughed, talked, hugged and finally said our goodbyes - wishing each other well - ending with "Tell everybody hey and I'll see you later!" I'M SO HAPPY to know that my last time to see her was full of laughter, smiles and hugs....she was a PRECIOUS lady❤️❤️

Gladys was truly the epitome of a "neighbor". Not only was she so kind but she was a caring person. All the years I lived next door to her was the greatest I've experienced with a neighbor. Miss you, love you and will always think of you fondly 💕💕

My sincere condolences to my family. "It takes a VILLAGE to raise a child", my family and I belongs to that VILLAGE. Gladys were more than just my mom's first cousin, she was like the overseer of us on the "BACKLINE". You were just sitting next to me at our cousin's funeral, didn't think that would be the last time seeing you. You will be greatly missed. You were the monarch of the family. Rest well!

Aunt Gladys, I already miss your words of wisdom, thoughtfulness of knowing the most comforting, appropriate scriptures to share exactly when needed. That spunky, tell you like it is, all while being done in love.

Love , Andrell and family.
