

Mr. Jason Heard

July 16, 1979 - November 28, 2025

Jason Wayne Heard was born on July 16, 1979, to the late Clara Cook-Heard and Charles Wayne Heard. In 1982, God blessed Sallie Heard and Shaunya Bryant with a beloved son and brother.

Jason attended Edward Bell High School in Camp Hill, Alabama, graduating with the Class of 1998. He proudly served in the United States Army and was honorably discharged in 2003. Jason had a passion for fashion, especially Nike clothing and sneakers. He was known for his hilarious sense of humor and could bring laughter to everyone he met. His favorite movies were Back to the Future and Misery, which he loved watching with his family. Above all, Jason cherished and deeply loved his family.

Jason departed this life on Friday, November 28, 2025. He leaves to cherish his memory his father, Charles Wayne Heard, and mother, Sallie Heard; five sisters, Shaunya (Keith) Bryant, Dorothy Roberson, Reneé Roberson, Robin

Roberson, and

Dietra Roberson; one brother, Malcolm Spears II; eight nieces, Megan Bryant, Maleshia

Bryant, Mya Bryant, Nicole Davis, Katrell (Travis) Gray, Lauren Spears, Brianna

Frederick, and Alanna Jenkins; and two nephews, David Roper and Malcolm Spears III.

He is also survived by aunts and uncles: Ethel (Joe) Whitt, Lucy Kirk, Mary Williams,

Paul Pollard, LaMorris (Estella) Heard, Douglas Heard, David (Genette) Heard, Larry

(Clara) Heard, Hazel Oliver and Abigiah Heard. A host of great-nieces and great-nephews, and many special cousins.

Jason was preceded in death by his mother, Clara Cook-Heard, and his niece, Taryn

Reviere-Giles.
