“ I am very saddened to learn of the passing Katrina. I got to know her when she worked for a few years at the Ralph brown Draughon Library at Auburn University where I also worked (and still work). Katrina was a sweet person and I enjoyed chatting with her many times during the years she was employed here. Even after she left the library, we stayed in touch by telephone a few times a year. Rest in peace, Katrina. I will always treasure our friendship.
