“ K-Lew! I've known Kevin most of my life. He met and married my sister Tim when I was grade school and was an influential part of my childhood. He bought me a remote airplane and encouraged my nerdy, scientific side. He was great father to his children and a model of stability in our family and church and community. Loved his Philadelphia Eagles. Even after my sister passed, he remained rooted in our family and connected in any way possible. You were a good man, K-Lew! Thanks for all you provided in my life and being there for me many times. Fly high, brother!❤️
