

Mrs. Lois Ann Thomas

April 27, 1965 - April 16, 2024

Lois Ann Thomas was born on April 26th 1965. Born and raised in West End, Adair Park Area in Atlanta, Georgia. She attended Sylvan Middle School and Brown High School, shaping her early years in the vibrant Atlanta community. Lois was lovingly raised and adopted by Lottie Boyd Smith, whose passing deeply impacted her life at 29 years old. Despite the challenges she faced, Lois remained resilient, becoming a pillar of strength for her family and friends.

At just 16, she welcomed her son, Andrique Smith, into the world, demonstrating her unwavering dedication to motherhood. Throughout her life, Lois was known for her boundless love and compassion, especially during her son's incarceration, where she provided steadfast support and care.

In 2012, Lois made a profound commitment to God, embarking on a journey of faith that transformed her life. She found solace and community at Mount Zion Baptist Church, where she devoted ten years of unwavering dedication to her spiritual growth.

Professionally, Lois dedicated five years of service to Walmart, embodying a strong work ethic and a warm, welcoming spirit.

On February 14th, 2016, she found love, marrying Eddie Thomas and embarking on a new chapter filled with love and companionship.

Lois is proceed in death by her brothers Charles and Carl Lyon, and sisters Donna Baugh and Sandra Shavers. Lois leaves to cherish her memory to her loving husband Eddie Thomas, her one and only son, Andrique Smith, seven grandchildren: Tanzania Jackson, Tavares Cox, Taquavious Cox, Shaniya Dozier, Shayla Dozier, D'Kayla Moore, Eden Smith, a great grandchild, Tavares Cox Jr., a niece Crystal Hart, a sister Otha Marie Lyon, a brother Earl Monroe, an Aunt Willie Mae Lyon, and loving best friends Willie Nell Fendly and Cathy Bass.
