To the Jackson & Aldridge Family; I was at a loss of words after viewing the entire announcement and found that it was you all who had said "until we meet again" to Mr. Malcolm. Knowing our Heavenly Father is a merciful, gracious, and kind Father and that we are never alone; as Jesus said that He would even go down into the grave with us, I hope His promise of that very thing, will minister back into the spirit of God, in each one of you, joy; in knowing that our Father says that ALL of His promises are yea and yea; and that rest for Mr. Malcolm was required of the "Lord of Love"; keep His words in your spirit and hearts as you continue to serve and obey Him until He calls us All back unto Him to live life eternally, before and with Him. Much love and prayer to each one of you. The Pugh Family “ Classmates since kindergarten - Auburn High class of 1983.No one could light up a room like my cousin.Well our DNA coexistence still lives on just as much today as it did last week. Yes I too am mournful yet the hilarious memories of our youth washes away the hurt in a big way! So I hope you have many more memories to share on our final reunion.The Jackson tribe runs deep,strong,loving and passionate therefore we shall now pick up your cross.

Catch you on the other side cuz!!!

“ To the Jackson Family,

This is a sister from another mother. Malcolm was the best little brother a girl could ask for. He was very loving, kind, good spirited and giving. Always there for whatever we needed. And for that I say thank you for sharing him with us. I know Malcolm is in heaven looking for our love ones who have gone before him, and also checking out the "Heavenly Choir". Because of sickness and scheduling conflicts, we will not be able to be with you in person. We will be with you in spirit and prayer.

*Love,
Carolyn Sturdivant Thomas*

“ On behalf of the Voices of Praise Choir from Bethel AME Church in Albany, GA we would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Malcolm Jackson during this rough hour. Malcolm was a dedicated church member, awesome singer/director, great chef/entertainer, good friend, and most importantly life-long supporter of Alabama A&M University and Marching Band!!! We will definitely miss the sound of the tambourine and that LOUD tenor in the middle on the back row! -lol- We will definitely miss the great times & BBQs at your house in Lee County. We will miss that genuine all-around good guy attitude and loving spirit. Rest easy my friend. You have taught us a lot...especially not to take anything for granted. You are the true meaning of "good and faithful servant"!!!

Sincerely,

Voices of Praise Choir
