“ My Brother. The three of us Marc, Judy and June were the last of Mama & Daddy’s children. We were so close. This is a hurt that will not heal. He was in my life always. We fought, we bickered, but in the end we loved each other without wavering. “Marcus Wayne” as our Mother called him. I somehow utter that name as if it is mine to say. I loved Marcus Wayne so much I think about him everyday and every minute that I’m awake, wanting this not to be true. Life does go on. But it will be a lonelier journey without him.
