“ My condolences and prayers for the family of the wonderful woman. We are honored to have shared life with Miss Mary. She will always be remembered for many things but mostly a great smile and baked treats. Some of the best cakes and pies, always. To the family you have inherited a great legacy and we join in the celebration of a life well lived.

“ My heartfelt deepest condolences to the family. I am heart broken I will miss Ms Mae Reesie . When I was at Mt Moriah we sat next to each other and she would say to me to lead a Hymn and I would. She gave me encouragement when I needed it. After I moved to Atlanta we would call each other and keep in touch. When I came in town she would always have a pound cake for me. God put her in my life and I am so happy he did. Rest Well Ms Mae Reesie
