“ Coach Vick, you gave me my first coaching job. I am forever grateful and indebted to you for stopping by my folks house and asking me if I wanted to come to Texas with you and coach. Thinking back to those days at Texas College when we didn't have much, I can't help but to smile because we went through a lot there. We had some good times together. Coach Vick, you will truly be missed. Andre and Nikki Payne and family

I was in Michael's Class of 1968 at Auburn High School. He was one of the ground-breaking first black students to come from Drake. I'm sure his sacrifice was greater than I can even imagine. His athletic ability on the basketball court helped move us in a positive way toward the future. I am so happy to discover that Michael coached & was a positive influence on so many young people. It was a privilege to know him in high school.
