

Mrs. Patricia Fowler Reed

December 19, 1950 - October 13, 2020

Patricia A. F. Reed, 69, was born on December 19, 1950 to the late Johnny Fowler, Sr and Farris R. Fowler. She was the oldest of four children. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister Deborah D. Blount and a brother Johnny Fowler, Jr. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior and Christ accepted her as she was. She was a member of Thompson Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church and later transferred membership to Tabernacle Baptist Church, Beaufort, SC after marriage. She lived her life completely “Out Loud”. You NEVER had to wonder what she was thinking.

She attended public schools of Lee County Alabama and was a 1969 graduate of J.W. Darden High School. She later attended Opelika Trade School and was certified as a Printer, yes, that was a real trade. After many years working at Piggly Wiggly in Port Royal, SC, she retired to care for her mother. Thank you Mr. Fletcher and The Pig Family for putting up with her mouth for as long as you did....

At age 4, she met the love of her life and if only you could hear the stories, that's love.

The love letter came several years later in the 5th grade. It went a little something like this:

“When we get married, we gonna have twins, we're gonna name one of them Whisky and the other one Gin”.

As the only child I wonder which one I am!!

She was joined in holy matrimony to the love of her life, Charles A. Reed on May 24, 1978 until she departed this earthly life. On the evening of October 13, 2020, Patricia closed her eyes one final time and took her eternal rest. Left to cherish her memory is her definitely devoted, loving husband of 42 years Charles. Only child: The Gorgeous Gertha Dansby (Curtis) Beaufort, SC. Three grandchildren: The Handsome grandson, Antavius Marquez Reed (Khaylae) Apopka, FL, The lovely Ty Nekole aka Lia, Beaufort, SC and The one that was most like her, Kaneisha Lipscomb, Belleville, IL. One brother as tall as a tree, John E. Fowler, Opelika, Alabama. Aunts: Gloria Whitfield, Washington D.C. Mary Smith, Chicago, IL, one uncle: Quinton Timothy Ross, Sr, Montgomery, AL. Six great grands which she affectionately called Gigi's babies, Jhaelyn, Jaxon, Jakavion, Londyn, James and Camryn. Four Sisters-in-Love: Dorothy James, Barbara Harvey (Rodney), Arwilda Smith, and Betty Reed all of Detroit, MI, Two Godsons: William "Bill" Bailey (Jenny) Jacksonville, FL and Bobby Price, Fairbanks, Alaska and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. Also, special friends that became family, Erma Robinson, Gloria Handy, Delores Middleton, Belinda Harvey, Nikki Thomas, Tia Caldwell, Judy Mathews and Angela Jones. She was all about a good time (puff puff, pass pass) and family. Everyone she encountered knew that she had a passion for cooking and would feed any and everybody!

Special thank you to the Porter Family and Pazant Family for welcoming us into their family upon our arrival to Beaufort. They treated us like their own. We love you.

The family of Patricia A. F. Reed appreciate every act of kindness, FB posts, texts, calls, hugs, shoulders, and the listening ears shown during this time.

“ I was deeply saddened to learn Patricia had passed. We worked together at Auburn University for a number of years and were also friends. I remember all the times we went to lunch at her home where her mother prepared delicious meals for us which was more of a dinner than lunch. I would sometimes spend the weekend with them and had many rides in her bright yellow beetle bug car. Although we both left the area we kept in touch and i visited with her a few years ago and teased her about her hair which had turned completely grey. I will always remember her as a deeply caring goodhearted person and friend.

“ My dear friend and classmate. Reading and Hearing about your departure from this earth saddens me, but I know that you are in the best Hands ever!! I realize you are resting with Love, Joy, Peace and Everlasting Oneness, but it saddens me knowing I won't have the opportunity to see you even in by passing. You are missed and loved 😍😭
