“ I remember when I was younger I would see Mr. Roy Lee down by the Cab Station. He was always a nice and friendly man. He would say gotta get to the A&P and people would say get it Roy Lee, when I heard that I was like what they saying that for, I saw real quick what they were talking about. Boy he could walk fast and he was so tall. I enjoyed watching him walk with a smile on his face. He would stop and talk to daddy sometimes but when it was time to go he went! I am sorry for you all loss I know he will be missed but he is never gone he will always be in your heart and that's where he will live. Love you all and God bless!
