“ RIP....Brother, Tony we connected the first time i met you in Smiths Station some 30 years ago....you had loving spirit every since. We shared more than just family memories, but the sweet and smooth sounds of instrumental jazz....Man, you were a great bassist, who had a ear for immulating some of the greatest jazz bass players that existed... Your spirit lives in all of us...Brother rest on, Til meet again at the nearby jazz Cafe!

Your cuz !
