“ My brother, road dog, lifelong friend. So many memories of good times, trials and tribulations, triumphs and defeats. Through it all, you remained the same from start to finish - one of my very best friends.

You have fought the good fight, you have finished the race, you have kept the faith. Time to collect your crown.

Though hearts are heavy now, better days are ahead for all God's children. Until we meet again, Rest In Peace. Wear your crown with pride - you earned it!

God be with Loretta and your family through this trying time.

Your Friend and Brother,

Everett Debrow, Jr.
