

Mrs. Violet Scott

June 6, 1926 - February 6, 2020

Violet Newton Scott died peacefully in Auburn, Alabama on Thursday February 6, 2020 at the age of 93. She is preceded in death by her husband, Maceo Theodore Scott whom she married in 1960.

Violet is survived by her daughters, Terri Scott and Agnes Scott-Stagg(Donald); sons Alfred Morris(Karla) and Leo Morris(Danielle); grandsons, Antonio Williams and Paris Morris; granddaughters, Terran Rogers, Angelica Rogers, Tenesha Perea, Anastacia McGinness, Alexis Morris, LaTisha Casey and Natasha Haynes; her dearest cousin, Wilma Webber and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

Violet was born June 6, 1926 in Weleetka, Oklahoma to the late Guy Newton and LeeVirter Inez Masters. She graduated from Philander Smith College with a major in Home Economics and a minor in Education. She then furthered her education at New Mexico State University and received her Master's degree in Education. She retired after many years of teaching from the Las Cruces Public Schools in Las Cruces, MN. She was a devout mother to not only her daughter's but she opened her heart and made room to nurture other family members as her own children. She was a rock and pillar not only to her family but also to her community.

Violet was a servant at heart and as a member of her church and beloved sorority. Her membership to Phillips Chapel CME Church and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated was her driving force to giving back. In 1945, while at Philander Smith College, she joined Gamma Alpha Chapter. In November 1961, she chartered Eta Phi Omega Chapter for El Paso, Texas and Las Cruces, New Mexico communities. She exemplified the precepts of the sorority in word and deed, most notably sisterhood and service. After more than 75 years of service and membership in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Violet was honored with the distinction of Life Time membership in her sorority.
